GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

1. "RETURN TO APPLICANT" should be stamped on each copy of descriptive literature that the company wishes to have returned.
2. Copies of information must be collated into sets.
3. Photocopies of approved licenses may be made for recordkeeping purposes only, not for making shipments.
4. DSP-61 applications may reflect only one country of ultimate destination.
5. Customs authorities may authorize shipments of hardware when the total value of the shipment does not exceed the aggregate value on the license by more than 10%. If the value has increased by more than 10% a new license is required. Quantities may not be amended, and additions should be treated as new orders and result in a new license request.
6. For transshipments, end use must be indicated in writing before applying for licenses. Hardware applications must be accompanied by the customer's verification of purchase or other appropriate document which indicates end use, end user, price and quantity.
7. Applications for Significant Military Equipment (SME) require an original signed DSP-83 at the time of license submission. All applications for SME valued at $14 million or more for end use by foreign armed forces (other than a member of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, Australia, New Zealand or Japan) must include a statement referring to prior approval or prior notification by the State Department in Item 10 or in an attached cover letter (see 22 CFR 126.8).
